Discover Laura Titzer’s debut book, NO TABLE TOO SMALL, which provides valuable advice for any social change group, especially those working to help local communities work together across political and cultural divides. Learn how the book presents a set of capabilities aimed at establishing a participatory dialogue grounded in systems thinking, complexity theory, and the educational philosophy of thinkers like John Dewey and Paolo Freire.

No Table Too Small
Book Event

Saturday
March 17, 2018
1pm

Learn and discuss
the ideas behind
No Table Too Small

Inklings Bookstore
5629 Summitview Ave